4. The lawful basis we process your data by

We comply with our obligations under the GDPR and DPA 2018 by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

In most cases the lawful basis for processing will be through the performance of a contract for personal data of our adult volunteers and legitimate interest for personal data of our youth members. Sensitive (special category) data for both adult volunteers and our youth members will mostly align to the lawful basis of legitimate activities of an association.

Explicit consent is requested from parents/guardians to take photographs of our members, where such photographs place the data subject as the focal point of the shot. On occasion we may use legitimate interest to process photographs where it is not practical to gather and maintain consent such as large-scale events. On such occasions we will make it clear that this activity will take place and give individuals the opportunity to exercise their data subject rights.

We use personal data for the following purposes: -

- to provide information about Scout meetings, activities, training courses and events to our members and other volunteers.
- to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution
- to administer membership records
- to fundraise and promote the interests of Scouting
- to manage our volunteers
- to maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications)

- to inform you of news, events, activities and services being run or attended by us
- to ensure and evidence your suitability if volunteering for a role in Scouting
- to contact your next of kin in the event of an emergency
- to ensure you have and maintain the correct qualifications and skills.

We use personal sensitive (special) data for the following purposes:

- for the protection of a person's health and safety whilst in our care
- to respect a person's religious beliefs with regards to activities, food and holidays
- for equal opportunity monitoring and reporting.

8. How we store personal data

We generally store personal information in the following ways:

The Scout Association Online Membership System - this is used for the collection and storage of adult volunteer personal data.

Online Scout Manager - is the online membership system of Online Youth Manager, this system is used for the collection and storage of youth member personal data, and the payment of fees and subscriptions.

Dropbox - occasionally used for secure transfer of limited personal information for events, retention of shared photographs of events

Google Workspace – used for the administration, including email and document storage.

Facebook – used for sharing information about section activities with parents/guardians.

Website – is used for storing submissions to the online contact form.

In addition, adult volunteers may hold some personal data on local spreadsheets/databases using personal devices.

Printed records and data held while attending events - paper is sometimes used to capture and retain some data for example:

- Gift Aid administration
- Event registration
- Event consent from parents/guardians

- Health and contact records forms (for events)
- Events coordination with event organisers

Paper records for events are used rather than relying on secure digital systems, as often the events are held where internet and digital access will not be available. We will minimise the use of paper to only what is required for the event.

9. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

10. How we provide this privacy notice

A link to this website page is provided to those whose data is being processed by us. A printed version is also available on request.
